

Account Setup for Apple Computer

Please Install the Smart Phone ++ Software available for download.

https://omnivoice.smartchoiceus.com/clients/Smart_Phone++_R3v1.0.3.dmg

After Desktop Installation is complete, start the program by clicking on the Smart Phone ++ icon

Click on Configure a SIP Account to setup your extension.

Next you will enter your account details as shown below.

In the Transport input select the TLS option, Once this has been completed please click the USE Button located at the bottom of the account settings screen to save.

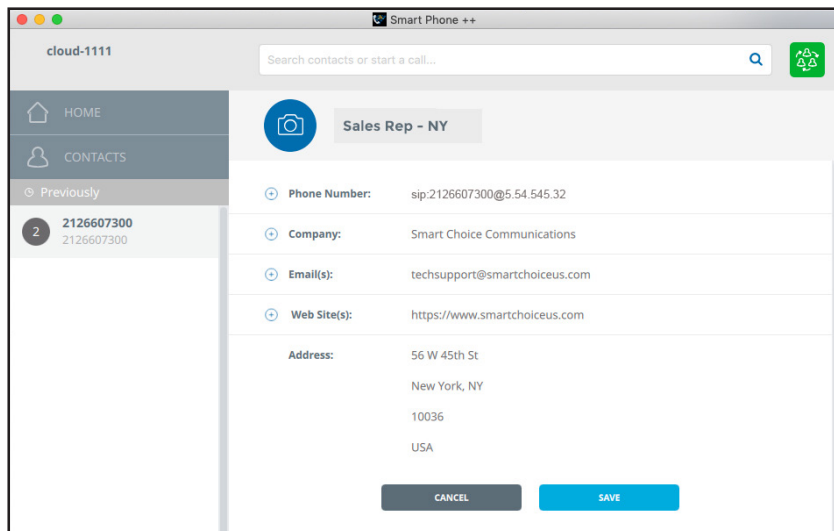

Adding a Contact

To add a contact Click on the search bar above and click on ADD CONTACT.

Next you will enter your account details as shown below.

Once this has been completed please click the SAVE Button located at the bottom of the account settings screen.

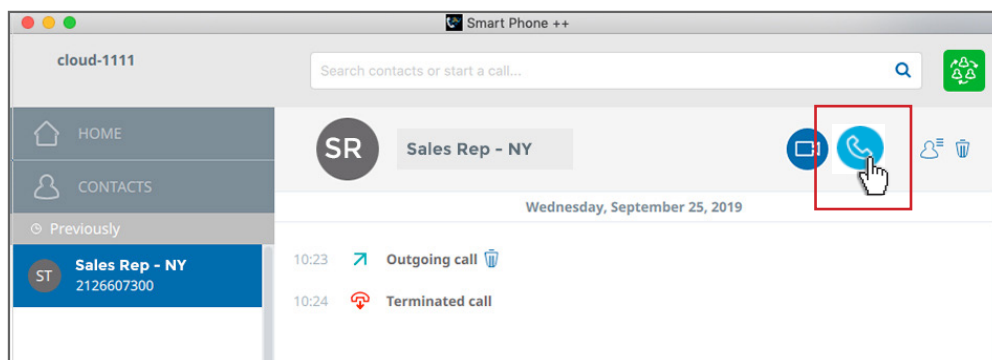

Calling a Contact

To call a contact search on the CONTACTS section on the side bar or Click on the search bar above and click on the CALL icon.

You can also call by going to your previous calls history and click on the CALL icon

Calling Options

In a call you have the options to view stats and dial pad or lock your call, you can adjust your microphone and speaker volume, activate video call, create a conference call, pause a call or hang up.

You can also TRANSFER a call from the option menu on the sidebar

You can also record your phone calls by clicking on the Record Button on the top left

Creating a Conference Group

While on a call, you can turn it into a conference group by click on the  CONFERENCE GROUP button, A pop-up window will emerge, showing all your contact numbers on the left, simply click on the arrow and add to the conference group, and click on the START button

